Mrs. James Ballantyne arranged the program of a particularly charming musical at the Women's Art Association yesterday, when an atmosphere of spring, caused by the efforts of the clever young artists, seemed to prevail in the cheery rooms. Miss Kathleen Reid gave several numbers on her violin, Miss Betty Thompson sang the "Cradle Song" by Vannah, and she was followed by Mrs. Zollner-Kinghorn's second numbers. A group of bird songs by Schumann was sung by Mrs. Alice Maclean, and in conclusion some appealingly realistic readings given by Mrs. Mary Ballantyne. GRADUATION DAY AT MARGARET EATON

Cleared $1,300 From Arena Fete—List of Prizes and Scholarships

Girls in white, with flowers of every hue nestling in their arms, made a lovely picture as they streamed over the dais at the Margaret Eaton School last night, and took their places in the front seats which were ribboned off for them. The Rev. Professor Michael said the prayer which began the proceedings, and then reminded his hearers in a short address that life required first an ideal and then an effort to reach that ideal, his words being addressed chiefly to the girls who were so soon to graduate. On the program also were a story, "Where Love Is, God Is," by Miss Nora Thomson, songs by Madame Beattie Bonnell Barron, a much appreciated talk from Col. Nasmith, C.M.G., and the splendid report of the year's work by the Principal, Mrs. George Nasmith. The latter dwelt on the Red Cross work done on Fridays during the session, and of the funds raised by the tea fees at these weekly gatherings. From the fete in the Arena, held in conjunction with Branksome Hall, the clear proceeds were $1,300, and of this $500 has been given the Soldiers' Aid; $300 to the Great War Veterans for the furnishing of two rooms; $200 to the library for the blinded heroes of the war, and $300 to the Rev. Peter Bryce to be used in different ways for the families of soldiers in the Earlscourt district.

Scholarships and Prizes.

Mrs. Timothy Eaton awarded the following scholarships and prizes: Josephine Burnside Scholarship, $200 given to the students of the Church of England and Methodist Deaconess Training Schools; Matilda Rogers Scholarship, $150; Gertrude E. Moore; R. Y. Eaton Scholarship, $100; Florence Robertson and Nora Thomson; Harry McGee Scholarship, $50; Jeanette Jeffreys; J. J. Vaughan Scholarship, $25; Helene Rogers; Margaret E. Many Guide Badges Won at Beaches

About sixty Girl Guides of the 25th (Beaches) Company met in St. Aidan's Parish Hall last night, under the Captaincy of Miss May Coulter, for the presentation of badges by Mrs. Torrington, who officiated in place of Lady Pellatt, unavoidably absent. The badges represented proficiency in first aid, housework and signalling. Another item was the presentation of four all-round cord badges given first-class Guides, who have, in addition, seven proficiency badges.

Mrs. T. G. Beatty, formerly the company's Captain, and now its representative on the local committee, was given a "Thanks" badge for her kindness in taking charge of the six girls who undertook fruit picking in Oakville last year.

At the conclusion of the business, and after an address by the Rev. A. E. MacIntyre, a play, "The War on the Western Front," by Mrs. W. E. Groves, was given. The players, costumed to represent the different countries, went through their lines perfectly to the tune of their clucking knitting needles. Refreshments, to the partaking of which the large audience of parents and friends were invited, closed the evening, one of the pleasant features of which was a speech by Mrs. Frank MacMahon.

MISSION TO LEPERS.

Financial Condition Improves Over a Year Ago.

A meeting, the last for the season, of the Mission to Lepers, was held in Sherbourne House Club, when Mrs. Trees presided, and was presented by Miss Mullin, on behalf of the Auxiliary, with a life-membership. Mrs. Lila Watt also took part in the meeting. Rev. E. C. Austin of South America spoke of lepers, and of religious work in Colombia. He said that five days' journey from New York city life is still so primitive that it might be in the 10th or 12th century. There are nearly 5,000 lepers in Colombia, who live in the three Government asylums, where they have their own police force, their own lawyers, doctors, etc. Mr. Austin gave a vivid description of distributing copies of the Gospel of St. John to a brooding, clamorous group of lepers. He has since received letters, carefully disinfected, from the asylum, telling of the good his visit did.

I. O. D. E. Bill Before Parliament

An interesting echo of the annual meeting of the I. O. D. E., held in Toronto last year, is roused by a recent despatch from Ottawa notifying the public that a bill will be introduced into Parliament during the session to incorporate the order under a Dominion charter. Last year Mrs. Colin Campbell, the active and valuable Provincial President of the Order for Manitoba, was publicly censured by the central control of the I. O. D. E., because she delayed the passage of a similar bill then before the Private Bills Committee of the Senate.

This censure, it will be remembered, was conducted behind closed doors, many delegates voicing their protest against exclusion by a demonstration in the ante-room outside Columbus Hall, in which the secret session was held.

The bill in question had passed its second reading when Mrs. Campbell took action to have it held back till certain provisions could be looked into and approved by the whole Order. It is said that not only was Mrs. Campbell dealt with very severely, but was threatened by certain officers with expulsion from the society as a result of the precautionary step taken by her.

Mrs. Campbell's objection to it caused a re-drafting of the bill by the Clerk of the Senate, and this revised bill is now objected to, in turn, by the President of the Order and her committee, and a new bill has been applied for. The cause of the difficulty appears to lie in certain powers given the Executive.

Some dissatisfaction is felt by active workers in the Order, both east and west, over the fact that all delegates to the annual meeting have not been furnished with a copy of the amended bill now before Parliament.

The holder of the non-stop record in America told of her visits to the military flying fields at Campagne and other French towns.

Alkali in Shampoos Bad for the Hair

If you want to keep your hair looking its best be careful what you wash it with. Don't use prepared shampoos or anything else that contains too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and ruins it.

The best thing for steady use is just ordinary mulsified coconut oil (which is pure and greaseless), and is better than anything else you can use.

One or two teaspoonsful will cleanse the hair and scalp thoroughly. Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, which rinses out easily, removing every particle of dust, dirt, dandruff and excessive oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves the scalp soft, and the hair fine and silky, bright, lustrous, fluffy and easy to manage.

You can get mulsified coconut oil at any pharmacy, it's very cheap, and a few ounces will supply every member of the family for months.

C.N.R. Lines Report Increased Grain Acreage

To keep closely in touch with the Greater Production Movement, the Canadian Northern Railway Company has been conducting a survey among its agents at shipping points to ascertain the possible output of foodstuffs from territories along its lines in Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta in Western Canada.

In Manitoba 87 stations reported; of these 44 gave the same acreage as last year; 24 announced an increase and 17 a decrease. From Saskatchewan 113 statements were received; of these 46 estimated the same acreage as last year; 22 forecasted an increase, and 44 expected a slight decrease. Of the 37 station agents reporting from the Province of Alberta 9 announced the same acreage as a year ago; 20 were confident of an increase and only 6 anticipated a decrease.

Labor was reported upon from 226 stations, 164 of which regarded this important factor as good, 20 considered the man power fair, 28 looked upon it as scarce, and only 14 classified it as poor.

The officers of the Canadian Northern are confident that the acreage sown to wheat, therefore, will be a little in excess of that of last year, and point out that settlement is constantly going on in the fertile virgin territories, opened up by its newer lines in the north.

In relation to the whole—put into cold-storage that no regulations which may be put into effect will have any material effect upon the prices of meats, and might do a serious and useless injustice to the packer, whose business is just as legitimate as that of any other industry in the community.

PUTTING POLE ON WIRE CONDUCTOR IS KILLED

ARTHUR DURRANT WENT BEHIND HIS CAR AND IS CRUSHED BY ANOTHER.

Arthur Durrant, thirty-seven years of age, 70 Olive avenue, a street railway conductor, was instantly killed yesterday on Yonge street, south of Bloor street. The pole of his car, which was running on the Avenue Road line, had come from the wire and Durrant stepped from the rear platform to put it back in its position. A Yonge car was following him. It was in charge of Motorman Murphy, 111 Alcorn avenue who, in his thirty-two years of service, did not have an accident.

Murphy saw Durrant on the tracks ahead of him and took the usual precautions at his disposal to avert an accident. The momentum of the car carried it forward. Durrant was so badly crushed that he died instantly. Motorman Murphy gave his version of the accident to the nearest police station.

BIG CHANGE IN WORLD AS RESULT OF THE WAR

Lieut.-Col. Nasmith Talks on Concentration

PUBLIC SERVICE IDEALS

Men Like Lloyd George Are Kings and Emperors—Canada Has as Yet Made No Great Sacrifice to Win the War.

"One of the lessons taught by this war has been concentration. Germany taught us that, and England has learned that," declared Lieut.-Col. G. G. Nasmith, C.M.G., addressing the graduating class last night of the Margaret Eaton School of Literature and Expression. Col. Nasmith, whose record of service at the front is well known, spoke on the subject of "Concentration," and cited many incidents of the war to clinch his arguments.

"England's concentration on her navy saved Europe. Germany's concentration on Zeppelins in her effort to strike at the heart of the Empire was very close to winning, but the concentration of the anti-air guns just managed to divert that disaster, and to-day Germany has concentrated on the submarine, and it is only being held in check by concentration," continued Col. Nasmith.

World Has New Ideals.

The world, said the speaker, has entered upon a new stage in its history; it has adopted a new point of view; it has accepted new ideals. Before the war the world was fast going to destruction, as the richer were growing richer and more arrogant, and the poorer were getting poorer. Money and position no longer held first place in the world of thinking people.

All Should Concentrate.

Speaking to the graduates, he advised them to take up some hobby in their lives which will engage the faculties not in use when they are at work. Failure in a profession, he said, means failure to concentrate. The world is full of mediocrities, but concentration is the master word to success.

Advice to New Voters.

The advancement of women in the world has been rapid in recent years, Col. Nasmith continued. New obligations have presented themselves. In Ontario women have been given the franchise, and there are many problems to become familiar with. Many of the men who have not enlisted, he said, have been hiding behind the skirts of some woman. He advised the women to vote for principle instead of party. If this is done, politics will be revolutionized in ten years.

Canada's Part in War.

Canada as a whole had made no great sacrifice, although her moral duty is just as great as if the country had been invaded, as she will reap the benefits to be derived from the struggle. "Canada must concentrate on this war to give the mother country assistance in her hour of need," he declared. He pictured France's armies bleeding on the battlefields and calling to Canada for help. If this assistance is given "Canada will wake one day to find herself a real nation, with a heritage and with a soul," he concluded.

REV. DR. SPEER APPRECIATED.

TORONTO'S HONOR ROLL

Flight Commander W. T. Hall has been killed in active service on the Somme front, according to a message received by his father, F. Asa Hall of 25 Heath street, yesterday. Two years ago young Hall graduated from the School of Practical Science in Toronto, and went to Chili as a mining engineer, employed with the Bredin Copper Company. In May of 1916 he went to England and received his commission as an aviator. After taking a technical course at Oxford, he went to Salisbury Plains, where he received his wings in August of that year. In September, 1916, he went into active service along the Somme. On April 4, this year, he

Gen. Logie Says They Will Make Good Soldiers

THE EMPIRE DAY REVIEW

Sir John Hendrie Takes the Salute—Order of the Parade—Patriotic Exercises Mark the Morning in the City Schools.

"They are a fine lot of boys. I never saw anything better; everybody was on his toes. The boys looked well, and were clean and smart, and they will make soldiers in no time."

Such were the eulogistic words of Major-General W. A. Logie, Officer Commanding Military District No. 2, at the conclusion of the annual review of Toronto High and Public School cadets on University avenue yesterday afternoon. The schoolboy brigades never made a better showing than they did yesterday, and it was little wonder that an old soldier saw in them, strong and sturdy as they were, the making of the future army of this city.

Lieut.-Governor Takes Salute.

Each of the boys vied with his neighbor to do his best, and to the martial music of the two bands, under the baton of Lieut. John Slater, they marched past the stand in front of McCaul School, University avenue, where His Honor the Lieut.-Governor, Lieut.-Col. Sir John Hendrie, took the salute.

Notwithstanding the cold weather, and the occasional showers that fell during the review, several thousand citizens were present. The battalions fell in promptly at 2.30 o'clock. Sir John Hendrie, General W. A. Logie, Lieut.-Col. W. A. McCrimmon, officer in charge of cadets for this military district, Col. Alex. Fraser, A.D.C. to the Lieut.-Governor, Lieut. O. D. Cochrane, A.D.C. to General Logie, inspected the lines, which reached from College to Queen street.

In addition to these officers at the saluting base there were Lady Hendrie, Miss Endie Hendrie, Mayor T. L. Church, Controller Foster, Hon.-Col. Dr. James L. Hughes, Lieut.-Col. Darling, 45th Highlanders, Lieut.-Col. John T. Thompson, cadet instructor, and the members and officials of the Board of Education. It required twenty minutes for all of the units to march past the saluting base.

Order of the Parade.

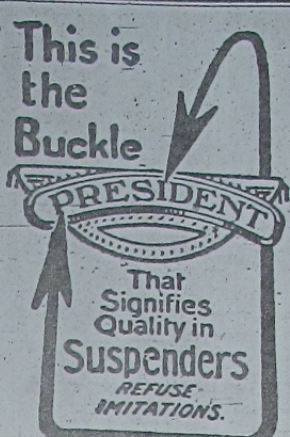

The order of the parade was as follows: Lieut.-Col. J. T. Thompson, Cadet Instructor; Lieut.-Col. Alfred Curran, Staff Officer. Collegiate Institute Brigade, with Mr. T. E. Reid in command, composed of the 1st Battalion, under Mr. A. H. Dunnett; 2nd Battalion, under Mr. W. B. Clarke; 3rd Battalion, under Mr. J. R. Adams; 4th Battalion, under Mr. W. R. Saunders.

First Brigade, with Mr. H. P. Carr in command, composed of the 1st Battalion, under Mr. R. G. Elliott; 2nd Battalion, under Mr. N. S. MacDonald; 3rd Battalion, under Mr. W. D. Hannah; 4th Battalion, under Mr. W. A. Schofield. Second Brigade, with Mr. E. Hancock in command, composed of the 5th Battalion, under Mr. A. A. Mason; 6th Battalion, under Mr. D. W. Armstrong; 7th Battalion, under Mr. J. A. Brown; and 8th Battalion, under Mr. S. Richardson.

Empire Day in Schools.

Now of the usual studies were taken up in the schools yesterday morning. Instead a patriotic program in keeping with Empire Day, as prepared by the Department of Education for use in all the schools of the Province, was carried out. Patriotic songs were sung by the children, and the Teachers told of the history of Empire Day, the 24th of May and particularly of Confederation. Most of the schools were dismissed at 11.

Music and the Drama

THE ROBINS PLAYERS.

One of New York's brightest stars, Miss Florence Roberts, will be the attraction at the Alexandra next week when she will appear with the Robins Players in her latest play of the West, "The Claim," supported by the entire cast of the Robins Players. The Claim is a sub-titled, "A melodramatic comedy," the theme of which concerns a child who has been abandoned by her mother, who was a singer in a "honker tonk," a term for a saloon in any western town where they have free vaudeville acts. Seven years before the opening of the play Belle Jones' husband commits suicide, leaving his wife to struggle as best she can in the fight for the child's existence. She realizes that her manner of life is not that fitted for the rearing of a child, so, accordingly, she abandons it, leaving it on the bar of the place where she has been singing. The play tells the story of the fortunes of mother and child. New York theatrical magnates will be well represented next week when this play will be presented for the first time in the past previous to its New York production, which will occur this fall.

LOEW'S YONGE ST. THEATRE.

The show at Loew's Yonge Street Theatre the coming week will represent a wide variety of entertainment. One of the headliners will be Jessie Hayward & Company in a clean little chapter from the life of the chambermaid in a cheap hotel in a small town and has nothing to look forward to in life except the same old weary round of drudgery, yet looks upon life with a happy spirit which conditions cannot quell. Into her drab life comes a young drummer. She falls in love with him and the feeling seems to be returned, but her hopes are apparently blasted when she discovers he is a thief. She is about to let him go and give up the big reward because of her love for him. When she discovers it is a case of mistaken identity. It is said to be primarily a comedy with many delightful situations. Charles Nevins and Ada Gordon have a clever skit, a combination of fun, songs and dances entitled "Success to the Wounded," a clever military oddity in which the girl appears as a Red Cross nurse and the boy as a war correspondent. Many other good acts are in the bill.

SHEA'S FINAL WEEK.

Sally Fisher and her talented company headline the bill at Shea's this week in the new sketch "The Choir Rehearsal"; Elsie Plicer and Dudley Douglas in smart songs, pleasing dances and a display of gowns are the special feature of the bill; Yvette, the singing violinist; Mrs. Vernon Castle in the tenth episode of "Patria"; The De Hars marvellous acrobats; Walter Brower, monologist; Falls and Falls in "The Water Fountain Mystery"; and Cooper and Ricardo complete the bill. The present week will conclude the offerings at Shea's Theatre for this season. In thanking the patrons of the theatre for their splendid support during the season which is about to close, the management desire to announce that the popular Victoria street vaudeville house will re-open about the middle of August.

THE HIPPODROME.

"The Matched," a sparkling miniature musical comedy with nine clever boys and girls, headlines the bill at the Hippodrome next week in a merry melange of smart songs, dances and witty sayings. Charles Ray, clever "Triangle" star, will be featured in the new release, "The Pinch-Hitter," a wonderfully accurate picture of the national game containing many thrills and surprises. Wanda, the seal with a human brain, performs many astounding feats both in the water and on the stage. R. J. Moore, an illusionist with a bright monologue, while Conroy and O'Donnell in "The Parcel Post Man" present a brisk little comedy sketch. Celia Dunham, singing comedienne, the De Luxe Trio of dancers and "Key-

A group of bird songs by Schumann was sung by Mrs. Alice Maclean, and in conclusion some appealingly realistic readings given by Mrs. Mary Ballantyne Halbus received repeated applause. The accompanists were Miss Dorothea Reid, Miss Myrtle Crang and Miss Alma Ferguson. The hostess, Mrs. W. W. Pope, received the many guests, and was assisted at the tea hour by Miss Hazel Campbell, Miss Nan Gunn, Miss Laura Ellis and Miss

GRADUATION DAY AT MARGARET EATON

Cleared $1,300 From Arena Fete—List of Prizes and Scholarships

Girls in white, with flowers of every hue nestling in their arms, made a lovely picture as they streamed over the dais at the Margaret Eaton School last night, and took their places in the front seats which were ribboned off for them. The Rev. Professor Michael said the prayer which began the proceedings, and then reminded his hearers in a short address that life required first an ideal and then an effort to reach that ideal, his words being addressed chiefly to the girls who were so soon to graduate. On the program also "were" a story, "Where Love Is, God Is," by Miss Nora Thomson, songs by Madame Bessie Bonsall Barron, a much appreciated talk from Col. Nasmith, C.M.G., and the splendid report of the year's work by the Principal, Mrs. George Nasmith. The latter dwelt on the Red Cross work done on Fridays during the session, and of the funds raised by the tea fees at these weekly gatherings. From the fete in the Arena, held in conjunction with Branksome Hall, the clear proceeds were $1,300, and of this $500 has been given the Soldiers' Aid; $300 to the Great War Veterans for the furnishing of two rooms; $200 to the library for the blinded heroes of the war, and $300 to the Rev. Peter Bryce to be used in different ways for the families of soldiers in the Earlscourt district.
